Dan's Corner

2011 was a crazy year with jobs, recessions, moves and unprecedented growth and we are excited about 2012.

We hope to offer many fine classes this year including a free motion sewing class, Amy Seibert's classes, Beginning Quilting with Natalie Larson, knitting with Barbara Johnson and many more. Teachers are being invited and we are looking forward to some great offerings.

I am busily restocking, trying to find the perfect mix of fabrics, notions, sewing machines, and vacuums. We have seen some wonderful pieces come in so far and we have our eyes out for more.

Barbara is doing well, working on designing some great new projects. I am looking forward to what she does when she is turned loose!

You, our fine customers, have made us what we are and we appreciate your support and suggestions as we continue together to make a great store.
